Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

By Captain JENNINS, arrived at Boston, in six Weeks from London, are the following Advertisements, viz.

VIENNA, September 16.

NOTWITHSTANDING the Conference are broken up between the Russians and Turks, a certain Period was to be allowed (40 Days, if we remember right) before Hostilities commenced on either Side; so that it is possible Matters may still be compromised without much Bloodshed.

We hear that the chief Articles the Parties could not agree upon, are the following three: First, the Independence of the Crimea; secondly, her Imperial Majesty would build a Port on the Dardanelles, for the Assurance of the free Navigation in the Black Sea, and a free Passage into the Mediterranean; and thirdly, to have Walachia and Moldavia for a Mortgage, till the Sum of Money is paid which the Porte is to give her Majesty, by Way of Indemnification for the enormous Expences of the five Years War.

LONDON, September 18.

We hear that on Friday the Dukes of Gloucester and Cumberland, with their Dutchesses, set off from Pall-Mall for Stowe, in Buckinghamshire, on a visit to Lord and Lady Temple.

On Thursday last the remains of the Earl of Litchfield were carried from the Hot-wells, Bristol, to be interred at Ditchley, near Woodstock, in Oxfordshire.

Sept. 20. It is strongly reported that, at the meeting of Parliament, a new regency will be appointed, in order to hinder the two Brothers in disgrace from having any share in the Administration.

Yesterday a Court of Hustings was held at Guildhall, when Mr. Alderman Oliver, and Mr. Alderman Lewis, were sworn into their office of Sheriffs for the city of London, and county of Middlesex.

Sept. 30. Yesterday being Michaelmas Day, and the anniversary Election of a Lord-Mayor of this city for the ensuing year, there was a very numerous appearance of the Livery at Guildhall for that purpose.

The Lord-Mayor, attended by several Aldermen, the two Sheriffs, the Recorder, and City Officers, attended the Hustings at about a quarter past one o'clock, when the Common Cryer, as usual, having opened the oration of their assembling, the Recorder came forward, and in a very plain, sensible address, acquainted the Livery, "that this being the day appointed for their election of a Lord-Mayor, that part, which the constitution allotted to them, was to choose two persons out of a number of respectable names, which would be read to them, one of which was to be approved of by the Court of Aldermen. He then descended very properly on the dignity and importance of the office, and concluded, by hoping they would be governed in their choice by temper, candour and impartiality, which he hoped the event would justify."

This address was received with very strong marks of applause; after which a motion was made, "that the thanks of the Livery be given to the late Sheriffs, Wilkes and Bull, for the watchful and steady discharge of their office," which was unanimously carried.

Another motion was then made, "that the said thanks be presented in the Town-Clerk's office," which was likewise carried.

After this all the Aldermen, who had not passed the chair, were severally put in nomination, when there appeared a large majority of hands for Aldermen Wilkes and Townsend, as there were hisses and groans for Banks, Halifax, Shakespear, Kennet, &c.

This the Sheriffs immediately declared, which declaration was received with bursts of applause. At the same time a poll was demanded for Sir Henry Banks, Aldermen Halifax and Shakespear, and also for Aldermen Wilkes and Townsend.

When the poll was reported to the Livery by the Common Serjeant, the Sheriffs desired him to announce the proposers, which he accordingly did; when the Livery complimented with groans and hisses.

Yesterday both Houses of Parliament met, pursuant to the last prorogation; and were, by a commission from his Majesty, further prorogued till the 19th of November.

Orders are issued for the Subaltern officers in each regiment to attend their duty with the utmost exactness.

The Windsor, of 60 guns, and the Preston, of 50, now at Portsmouth, are ordered to be rigged and fitted out for sea immediately.

October 1. Yesterday both Houses of Convocation met, pursuant to their last prorogation, and were further prorogued to Wednesday, the 15th of November next.

October 2. The Cabinet-council did not break up yesterday till after four o'clock: It is rumoured it was in consequence of some intrigues against Denmark.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, Sept. 25.

"Letters received here from Hamburg advise, that the late revolution in Sweden has excited the attention of the Court of Petersburg; and a report prevails, that the Empress of Russia has given orders for 15000 men to march immediately into Finland; but the measures which have induced her Imperial Majesty to take this step, remain a mystery."

Yesterday arrived a mail from New-York, brought by the Lord Hyde Packet-boat, Captain Goldard, in 23 days.

The King of Prussia has taken possession of the district of Great Poland, situated between the Drage and the Netze, as well as of the country of Prussia and Pomerania on both sides of the Vistula; which the crown of Poland has hitherto held under the name of Polish Prussia, except the cities of Thorn and Dantzick.

The Lords Lyttleton, Temple, and Camden, have been observed to have courted each other's Company lately with uncommon Affluity. Their Lordships, particularly the two former, have often very long Conferences together.

Lord Mansfield has interposed very strongly with a Great Personage in Favour of the Dukes of Gloucester and Cumberland; and his Lordship's Endeavours to reconcile the Family Differences, now subsisting, have been seconded by several Persons of great Influence with his Majesty.

It is reported that the Duke of Mecklenburgh, charmed at the Progress of the Swedish and Danish Troops, which surround his Dominions, has applied to the Courts of London and Petersburg, for their Performance of the Guarantee Treaty, subsisting between them.

Oct. 3. It is said that a very considerable Naval Force will, towards the End of next Month, depart for America; Part of which is to cruise on the Banks of Newfoundland, and the other Southward, as far as the Gulf of Florida.

It is said that Application has been made to a Great Personage, that no English Subjects may be permitted to join the Colony to be settled on the Mississippi.

Oct. 5. Three great evils now threaten the nation: 1. Europe being on the eve of a general war: Great-Britain, notwithstanding Lord North's prophecy, must be drawn into the general vortex.

2. The East-India Company, by the jobbing of the Directors, must break, and, in the language of the eloquent Mr. E. Burke, cut off one of the nation's hands.

3. The Livery of London, regardless of the liberty of the press, and consequently of general liberty, begin to forget what they owe to Alderman Wilkes. Till their charter is invaded, and their magistrates imprisoned, they will not stir. With what face can they henceforward present remonstrances, or complain of corruption in the Lower House? The acceptance of a bribe of five guineas from a Prussian Barber, renders them totally contemptible.

The Congress at Poczani is broke up. France has gained her end, and Europe is returned to the very situation, in which it stood at the beginning of the negotiation with Spain. Sweden will take up arms against Russia; Prussia, Poland, and France, will join the Confederacy; and the Turks will once more lift up their heads. Austria, Russia and Prussia, foreseeing this event, have seized upon parts of Poland, in order to make them, during the war, serve the same purpose as Saxony did, in the last war, with the King of Prussia.

The French and Spaniards are prepared to strike a blow in both Indies. The former have not yet withdrawn their 8000 men from the Mauritius, nor the latter their fleet from the Havana. Bengal and Jamaica are both in jeopardy; the one from its defenceless situation, and the discontent of the Negroes; the other from the rapine of the Company's servants, and the gambling of the Directors.

Oct. 7. It is reported that Lord Howe will shortly be appointed to the command of a Squadron of Observation, to be stationed on the coasts of France and Spain.

We hear that a Great Personage has signified an inclination of permitting the Queen of Denmark to visit this kingdom, but Lord M. still urges the impropriety of it.

We hear a certain illustrious Her Apparent was in disgrace a few days ago, for wishing, as he declared he did from his heart, that Wilkes might be Mayor.

By Advice from Berlin we learn, that the Prussians are indefatigable in building fortresses, and putting garrisons in every place of consequence in Polish Prussia.

The 2d inst. arrived at Plymouth, 3 transports from the Downs, to take on board the 6th regiment, bound for the West-Indies.

On Friday last a journeyman taylor began to walk, for a large wager, 1000 miles, which he is to perform in 1000 hours, at only one mile an hour, on a spot of ground marked out for the purpose near Tyburn Turnpike.

It is reported, that Capt. Walter Nugent, a near relation of Lord Clive, was killed in a duel a few days since in Ireland.

Oct. 8. They write from Copenhagen, that the King has advanced 50,000 crowns, without interest, to the projectors of a scheme, for erecting a foundry in Norway for cannon and mortars, and has agreed to take all that shall be cast, even at a higher price than the proposer demanded.

The contents of the budget for the ensuing year, are expected to give the greatest satisfaction, as, we hear, Lord North is assisted in forming it by some of the first personages in the kingdom.

A number of persons of rank and fortune are now making application to government, for grants of lands near the Mississippi.

An Ambassador Extraordinary is soon expected here from Warsaw, where some important negotiations are said to be on the carpet, for supporting the political balance in the north of Europe.

On the 20th of last month died, at his house in Dublin, Lord Lambert, Earl of Cavan, who is succeeded in his title and dignities by his cousin german, Major-General Richard Lambert, of the foot guards, now Earl of Cavan.

St. James's, Oct. 9. His Majesty has appointed the Right Hon. Simon Earl of Harcourt, Lieutenant-General and General Governor of his Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland. The Right Hon. Lord Viscount Stormont (now at the Court of Vienna) to be his Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Court of Versailles.

ISAAC BARTRAM,

HAVING closed his partnership with MOSES BARTRAM, is now moved into Third-street, between Market and Arch-streets, two doors below the Sign of the Branch of Grapes, and opposite RICHARD HOCKLEY, Esq; where he has erected suitable conveniences for carrying on the DRUGGIST and APOTHECARY's Business, in a large and extensive manner; and has now for sale, a large assortment of DRUGS, chymical and galenic MEDICINES, of the freshest and best kinds, imported from London, in Captain Osborne, and are to be sold, wholesale or retail, at the lowest prices. Among a variety of Drugs, he has a general assortment of Patent Medicines, imported from the original Warehouse, such as Turlington's balsam of life, British oil, Balaam's drops, Fraunce's female elixir, Walker's Jesuits drops, James's fever powders, Anderson's, Lockyer's, and Hooper's female pills, Greenough's ointment for the teeth and gums, elixir balsamicum, Godfrey's cordial, &c. JACOB COOPER,

SAMUEL SHOEMAKER,

JOSHUA HOWELL,

ATTORNEYS

of the Trustees.

TO BE SOLD,

A PLANTATION, containing 400 acres, situate and lying in Chancetown township, York county, in Pennsylvania, a few miles from several Ferries on Susquehanna, where there is a good market for grain, 29 miles from York-town, 26 miles from Lancaster-town, on the road that leads from Lancaster to Baltimore-town, and from York-town to Nelson's Ferry, a few miles from several merchant-mills; the whole of said plantation is good land, suitable for farming, and is well watered and timbered. On said plantation are a dwelling-house, two stories high, good double barn and stables, good orchard, and a quantity of timothy meadow, 160 acres of clear land, under good fence. Whoever inclines to purchase said plantation, may know the terms, by applying to the subscriber, living on the premises, who will make a clear deed for the same.

FRANCIS HOULTON.

LUDWIG LAUMAN, of Lancaster,

TAKES this opportunity of acquainting the PUBLIC in general, and his Friends and Customers in particular, that he has removed to his new house, built by the late John Cameron, adjoining to the house in which said Cameron formerly kept his store; where he has just opened a fresh and quite new assortment of European and East-India GOODS, which he will sell on the very lowest terms; he hath also a quantity of superfine, fine, middling, and coarse houlting-cloths, which he will likewise sell very cheap. He thinks it unnecessary to particularize his goods, as it is well known that he always keeps the greatest and most complete assortment in the place; and that he sells them at the lowest prices, is likewise very well known, to the satisfaction of all his customers; and those who have not yet experienced it, may easily acquaint themselves, by trial; as his utmost endeavour shall be exerted to give general satisfaction, he therefore flatters himself, that he will meet with the encouragement of the public.

CAME to the subscriber, a young English or Irishman, and offered a fine HORSE, with Saddle and Bridle, very cheap, for sale; and when the subscriber told him, that he thought he had stolen the horse, he changed the colour of his face, and went off, leaving the horse. Said horse is 13 hands high, paces, and is about 12 years old. Whoever can prove his property to said horse, may have him again (paying charges) in Berks county, seven miles below Reading, on the road leading to Philadelphia.

L O N D O N.

On Friday morning, at eleven o'clock, a Court of Hustings was held at Guildhall, for the purpose of declaring the poll for Lord-Mayor for the ensuing year.

The Sheriffs, attended by their officers, ascended the Hustings a little after eleven, and afterwards sat down to cast up the poll, which took up about two hours. When the poll was cast up, the Common Serjeant came forward, and declared the numbers, as they stood at the close of the poll,

For Mr. Alderman Wilkes,	2301
Mr. Alderman Townsend,	2278
Mr. Alderman Halifax,	2126
Mr. Alderman Shakespear,	1912

The poll being thus declared, Mr. Wilkes came forward, and addressed the Livery in the following Speech.

Gentlemen, and Brother Liverymen,
 "I want powers to express the deep sense I have of the distinguished honour you have done me, by a majority of your free suffrages. I find you are now, on the most frivolous pretexts, to be harassed by a Scrutiny; but I know the event will only confirm the justice of the poll, and demonstrate the fairness and honour of the proceedings of my friends, during the whole election.

"The present Sheriffs, Gentlemen, in the course of this election, have maintained a firmness and impartiality, which are the most pleasing omens of a patriotic conduct for the whole year of their Sherrifalty.

"During the present contest, a remarkable paper has been published, relative to the liberty of the press, one of the great bulwarks of all our liberties. I find it authenticated by one of our own body, a Freeman of Pater-noster-row, Mr. Thomas Evans. In that paper we are told, that a Gentleman came into this city, and threatened the Printer, in consequence of his having published their minutes, that if he did not give up the person or persons, who favoured him with the proceedings of that Committee, the House of Commons would proceed against him with the utmost severity. I rejoice, Gentlemen, that the honest Printer has not been frightened by so insolent and illegal a menace; and I here declare that he, and every other fellow-citizen, shall have the most spirited legal support from me, both for his own private protection and security, and for the effectual punishment of every violator of the laws of our country, and the franchises of our city. While God continues me health to do my duty among you, the powers, with which you have armed me, shall be exerted against every attempt of violence and injustice, even from the highest usurped authority. Our right, as constituents, to be fully informed of the proceedings of our Representatives in Parliament, has been clearly demonstrated; but the force of truth is not likely to prevail against men, lost to all sense of shame, even so atrociously wicked, beyond the example of the most barbarous nations and times, as to corrupt the great fountain of public justice, by erasing a judicial record, till that hour held almost sacred in every civilized country. I congratulate you, Gentlemen, that you possess several excellent Magistrates, who, in a good cause, have the fortitude to meet the rage of a senate, composed chiefly of hirelings and slaves. I wish I could rank your present Chief Magistrate among that number; but as we have among us Magistrates of ability, firmness and integrity, real and warm friends of the people, I am persuaded that our liberties and franchises are safe against every hostile attack. The event must be happy; the defeat of despotism, the victory of the constitution.

"I can never, Gentlemen, sufficiently acknowledge the honour you have done me, by the unanimous resolution of your entire approbation of my conduct during the past Sherrifalty. Permit me likewise, on this occasion, thus publicly to return thanks to my late colleague. Through the whole course of the last year he has given repeated proofs of his steady attachment to the cause of liberty, and to the duties of his office. He has shared with me the various fatigues and difficulties inseparable from our late charge. I have regularly experienced from him the most obliging readiness to lessen the weight of whatever was painful or oppressive, and to co-operate in every measure for the common welfare, and the good of this capital. Your private feelings, Gentlemen, will, I am sure, justify me in this public tribute of the gratitude I owe to so worthy a friend, and excellent a magistrate, as Mr. Alderman Bull."

To this speech was echoed an universal shout of applause; after which Mr. Bull came in, and addressed the Livery in a modest sensible speech.

The Common Serjeant then declared, that a scrutiny was demanded by each candidate separately against the rest, which the Sheriffs had granted, and which would commence on the 24th instant.

As the scrutiny is like to be the topic of conversation and debate for some time, we hope the following extract from Mildmay's elections will not be disagreeable to our readers.

"Within six days after the poll, the Sheriffs must deliver true copies of the poll to the candidates. The scrutiny must be proceeded upon within ten days after the delivery of the list, to which day the Common Hall must be adjourned, and must be finished within fifteen days, Sundays excepted. The Sheriffs must make the declaration within four days after the scrutiny is finished. So the declaration will be made on the 18th of November, unless any reference should be made to the Court of King's Bench.

The reason why the Parliament is to meet earlier the approaching session than usual is, that the affairs of the East-India Company, which are now almost at an entire stop, may be discussed without loss of time.

Lord North now enjoys the greatest honours any Commander ever possessed in this kingdom, as he is a Knight of the Garter, Chancellor of the first University in Europe, and Minister of State.

It is remarkable that Lord Chatham, Lord Dartmouth, Lord Suffolk, and Lord North, were all educated at the little college of Trinity, in the University of Oxford.

It is much expected that Lord Camden will be soon appointed to some important office in the administration, for he has lately been honoured with two visits from Lord North.

A gentleman lately arrived from France says that, during the time he was at St. Maloes, no less than 12 Vessels arrived there with flour from North-America.

Yesterday the Rev. Dr. Fothergill, Provost of Queen's College, Oxford, was installed Vice-Chancellor of that University.

On the 10. Something more than common takes up the attention of the great people at the west end of the town. At this time all the Officers of State seem in commotion.

It is plainly enough to be seen, that a most vigorous war threatens Europe, from the North to the South; by which the States of Holland find themselves highly embarrassed.

There are letters from Gibraltar, by his Majesty's ship the Scorpion, which give an account, that a very strong fleet of Spanish men of war was arrived there; that they had landed within sight of the garrison 5000 soldiers; and that it was apprehended they had some design upon that place.

Yesterday morning the Lord Mayor issued out precepts to the Clerks of the several Livery Companies, to make out by Monday next, the rath instant, a list of all the persons on the Livery, and the time of their admission, and they are to deliver it upon oath to his Lordship, on the above day. The clerks who took the poll are busy in making out lists of the electors, and the Company each Liveryman swore himself to belong to, that the scrutineers may compare it with the list, that is to be delivered to his Lordship; so that every necessary step is taken by the Lord Mayor to finish the scrutiny, in a shorter time than can be well expected, and, in all probability, time enough for the Lord Mayor for the year ensuing to be sworn in on the usual day.

On the 12. It is a truth beyond contradiction, that there remained upwards of four hundred staunch Wilkites, who had not polled at the end of the poll. By this it is plain to a demonstration, that the popular cause gains ground daily.

The committee at the Paul's-head are incessant in their labours, and they have made some very important discoveries, particularly a body of no less than 25 voters for Halifax all in a lump, who will be disqualified.

On Friday the Earl of Hartcourt kissed his Majesty's hand, on being appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, in the room of Lord Viscount Townshend; and he afterwards took the usual oaths before the Privy Council.

On Saturday it was strongly reported that there has been a revolution in another northern kingdom, and that the Potentate is absolutely deposed.

Extract of a Letter from Smyrna, August 22.

"This day a terrible fire broke out here, and continued burning all the next day. Three thousand houses, which made three parts of the city, were destroyed; from 3 to 4000 shops, 16 mosques, 12 caravanseras, 7 bagnios, 9 synagogues, and 8 public markets, have all been consumed; a large quantity of corn, 2000 sacks of rice, and 150 bales of coffee, have been lost in the conflagration. The whole loss is computed at twenty millions of dollars. It did not affect the English quarter."

Extract of a Letter from Hamburg, October 5.

"We have just received advice in this city, from Copenhagen, that the Queen Dowager is just delivered of another political scheme, to advance her son Frederic to the throne; she has got it propagated, that the King is insane, and therefore it is very improper to trust him with the reins of government any longer, and wants her son Frederic to be appointed Regent, till the King is restored to his senses. However, we further learn, that at the King's own desire, he is to be examined with regard to his insanity, and I doubt not but it will prove groundless; and I think he cannot better show it, than by banishing her and her son out of the kingdom, which is the only way of restoring peace and tranquility to that unhappy country."

The Earl of Bute, we are told from very good authority, is now on a visit to Lord Camden, at his seat, at Chiffelsbury, in Kent, where he has been for some days.

All the latest advices from Spain agree, that all the Spanish settlements in the South Seas are putting into a state of defence with all possible dispatch.

Advice is received, that the King of Prussia has taken possession of Cracow, and placed a garrison of 5000 men there, to defend it for the King of Poland against his rebellious subjects; but the same advices say, it is apprehended that he has other designs in view.

Advices are said to be received from Lisbon, that the castle of Estremadura, in Spain, had revolted, and had murdered the Governor thereof, and that a body of troops had marched to prevent any further ill consequences.

Betts were on Thursday last laid by a great man, at the Smyrna, that our assistance, either by land or sea, would be demanded by four different powers on the continent.

On Thursday last died at Richmond, in Surrey, Thomas Hanway, Esq; one of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy.

Mr. Wilkes, it is said, has been promised no less than three sets of horses, by three different Noblemen, for his state coach, should he be chosen Lord Mayor. Those intended for him by Lord T-----, are supposed the most valuable, being purchased for the immense sum of 2401.

When a Great Personage heard of T-----'s intended generosity towards Mr. Wilkes, he smiled, and said, "Poor T-----; is his party so weak, that he is reduced to the necessity of drawing in supporters with horses?"

On the 14. A correspondent observes, that the ambitious views of the King of Prussia seem to indicate, that a general war is not at any very great distance, except the powers of Europe become tame spectators, while this petty Monarch dismembers the great and once flourishing kingdom of Poland. He wishes, for the peace of Europe, that this common disturber of mankind may be most heartily humbled; and that instead of Poland, which seems at present to be defeated by all the powers of Europe, the dominions of this haughty Prince may become the subject of partition amongst the contending parties, which will be the only means of securing to Europe the sweets of a lasting peace.

We are informed, that the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer has actually resigned, and that it was expected he would be succeeded by Mr. Baron Smythe; yet we are now told the Attorney-General will succeed him, and that Mr. Wedderburne will be appointed Attorney-General.

It is the general opinion of all the discerning, that Poland cannot be dismembered, without a continental war.

On the 15. Many wagers are now laid, that the Court will use their prerogative of a negative, should the Court of Aldermen choose Mr. Wilkes Lord-Mayor.

Extract of a letter from a Merchant at Danzig, dated September 19, 1772.

"The King of Prussia took possession of this unhappy province the 15th instant. The Prussians at the same time (to convince us of the King's sincerity in declaring this a free town) took possession of the harbour, and do not permit any ship to come in or go out, without paying a new duty to them; they have even orders to compel by force any ships to pay it, who should refuse; and in consequence of these orders, they yesterday stop an English ship, which refused to submit to such imposition; and to-day they stop a Dutch ship on the same account. If your Court, and the other Powers of Europe, do not interfere immediately and effectually, this town will be forced to give up to the King of Prussia."

From the Public Advertiser, September 23, 1771.

PLEASE to acquaint the Public, that the Address lately presented to the Earl of H-----, by a pretended Committee of American Merchants, was a most infamous and clandestine Proceeding; that those few, who carried it up to his Lordship, did it in a secret and shameful Manner; that the most considerable and respectable Merchants, trading to America, were neither consulted in it, or made acquainted with the Measure; and that those who signed and presented the Address, are very fearful of having their Names made known; that they are a Set of prostituted Tools of Despotism and Contraband-Hunters; that they may be made to appear as such, the Moment they are particularly and personally pointed out; that the principal Merchants, trading to that Country, have the most contemptible Opinion of Lord H-----'s Abilities, and detest his anti-commercial and despotic Principles.

I am astonished that the American Merchants do not justify themselves, by publicly declaring that they, and their Correspondents, hold directly opposite Sentiments; for however the Merchants in America may be divided in their Interests, or Modes of Proceeding, with respect to Lord of Revenue, they all agree in execrating and deriding the Name of H-----, and the System of his Politics.

I hope those insolent and prostituted Tools, who have thus daringly insulted the whole Body, by filing themselves a Committee of the American Merchants, may be dragged forth to the Bar of the Public. Their Insignificance conceals them, or their Deeds should long since have been brought into Light.

I now conclude with one Anecdote, which may tend to delineate the Character of their Idol, the Earl of H-----. He had deposed and betrayed poor General Lyman, till Fastfood and Lies could no longer serve to shield him. Pushed into inextricable Difficulties, this honest Statesman (after declaring the Sense he had of his Merit and Sufferings, and promising him his unabated Patronage and Friendship) tells the General that Lord Albemarle, General Amherst, Munckton, Keppell, and the whole Class of his Friends, had, after due Consideration, come into the Resolution of subscribing One Hundred Pounds each, towards relieving him from his present Difficulties, and getting him over to his Family in America; that he, the Earl of H-----, would assuredly provide for him though at a Distance; that he begged to make one of the Number, who should have the Pleasure of assisting him, and accordingly gave him One Hundred Pounds.

The poor old Man, struck with the Generosity of the Proposal, and the Impropriety of making Objections to what, all his Friends had agreed should be the Line of his future Conduct, after some Hesitation and modest Refusal, accepts of the Money, being assured that Lord Albemarle, and eight other Gentlemen, would also assist him with the like Sum. Waiting some considerable Time, for it was a tender Subject for him to mention, he at last had some Hint of it made known to Lord Albemarle. His Lordship was much surprised, and declared his total Ignorance of the Affair. The General having been repeatedly deceived before, suspects the whole to be a Lie, declared it without Reserve to all the other Parties. They each denied having the least Knowledge or Idea of such a Scheme, and each dam'd H----- as an infamous S-----. Unfortunately the old General had made Use of the Cash---was now unable to return the Purse with the Infult; but declared aloud in the Presence Chamber, and in the Hearing of his Majesty, "that Hell itself was not so deceitful as the Earl of H-----." The good old Man is resolved to transmit the 100l. the Moment he has it in his Power, with Language becoming the Indignity. The Public may easily believe that the 100l. might have been brought to Account of Secret Service Money, but the Shallowness of the Expedient may mark the Character of the late American Secretary of State, and call up our Wonder for the Day.

ATTICUS.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 26.

Last Sunday Night the Letter Box, placed at the Raleigh Tavern by Captain Robert Necks, of the Ship Lunn and Lloyd, bound to London, for the Convenience of the Merchants, now in this City, to receive their Letters for Great-Britain, was taken away by some evil disposed Person; and next Day several of the Letters were found open in the Street, with the Invoices and Bills of Exchange that were therein, some gone, and others destroyed. A Reward of TWENTY POUNDS is offered for the Detection of the Person, or Persons, concerned in this villainous Transaction, that a Crime of so detestable and pernicious a Tendency may not escape the Punishment it so justly deserves.

The Schooner Hansford, Captain Wilton, arrived at Norfolk from Antigua, on the 18th ult. in Lat. 19, Long. 60, W. fell in with a Guineyman, the Crew of which had been murdered by the Negroes. Captain Wilton, in attempting to come near, was fired at with Mulkets; but as he had neither Boat nor Arms, and had been distressed some Days before, was obliged to leave her. She appeared to be a New-York built Brig, with yellow Sides, black Bends, a white Bootop, black Stern, and red Mouldings, had a green Stroke all round her below the Top of the Gunwale, a Kind of a Billet Head, with an Image on it, painted green, and had a square Tuck, with a very large Boat on Deck.

B O S T O N, November 26.

A violent Storm happened about the 25th of September, and a Number of Vessels were lost on the Coast of England; among which was a large Ship of 300 Tons Burthen, Name unknown, supposed to be laden with Corn or Flour, bound from Baltimore to Dublin: She was seen to drive on the Banks of Arklow, with many People on board, and in a few Minutes after disappeared, and all perished.

The Chantelop, Captain Tobin, from the Grenades, was totally lost on the Devonshire Coast. The Captain and all the Crew, except one Man, perished.

In the Papers of September there are many Pieces in Vindication of the Character of Lord Hillsborough, against the Abuses that have been cast upon him since his Resignation.---It is proved by Facts, not Party-clamour, that every Charge hitherto advanced against his Lordship was vague, was idle, ill-founded, or absurd. When in Office, we may suppose Envy, and a Desire of supplanting his Lordship, might be the principal Motives for thus bespattering him; but, after Resignation, after acting with a Consistency seldom to be met with amongst Ministers, after retiring, sooner than depart in the smallest Tittle from Patriotism, Rectitude and Honour, after this there is a Cruelty, beyond Expression, in any Writer, to attack a Nobleman, whose Mind is Virtue in human Form. Thus writes an Advocate for Lord Hillsborough.

On the 28th of September Messrs. Wilkes and Bull addressed the Liverymen of the City of London, on the Expiration of their Sherrifalty.

In Captain Jenkins, from London, a Person came Passenger, who carried on the Button-making Business, and has brought over the Materials for making all Sorts of gilt Buttons---A Manufacture not known by any in America.

N E W - Y O R K, December 7.

The Earl of Halifax Packet, Captain Boulderston, failed with the Mail for Falmouth last Thursday.

Captain Prince, from Cayenne, in his Way touched at Barbados, which Place he left the 27th of October, and acquaints us, that the Slaves in a French Brig, belonging to Martinico, from Africa, had killed the Crew on the Passage, took Possession of the Vessel, were cruising to Windward of the Islands, and had fired upon several Ships, &c. that had arrived in the West-Indies; and that two Sloops were gone in Search of her: That a Ship, belonging to Liverpool, with 350 Slaves on board, was lately brought into Barbados, by another Guineyman, after a warm Engagement of four Hours, the Slaves having killed all the Whites on board, but one little Boy: And that a Number of the Indians at St. Vincents had laid down their Arms, and delivered themselves up to the Governor.

On Thursday last, in this City, departed this Life, in the 42d Year of her Age, Mrs. JOANNA NICOLL, Wife of WILLIAM NICOLL, Esq; of Illip, and one of the Representatives of Suffolk County. She was esteemed and acknowledged by all who knew her, to be one of the best of Women.

On Friday last the Governor's Guards, Grenadiers, Light Infantry, Rangers, &c. (being the Independent Companies of this City) were, for the first Time, publicly reviewed.---His Excellency Governor TRYON, and the other superior Officers, with a splendid Assembly of the principal Ladies and Gentlemen, appeared in the Field. The Officers of the several Companies performed their Parts, in their respective Departments, with great Skill and Regularity; and the Men went through the different Exercises and Manoeuvres, with an Order and Dexterity, which did them much Honour. In fine, the Neatness of their Uniforms, the Readiness and Grace, with which the various Evolutions were performed, and the Propriety observable on the whole, gave much Satisfaction to the numerous Spectators, and must be agreeable to every one who wishes to see a well disciplined Militia amongst us. After the Business of the Day was concluded, a splendid Entertainment was given to the Officers, by their worthy Commander the Governor.

P H I L A D E L P H I A, December 9.

Captain Blewer, from South-Carolina, on the 28th ult. in Lat. 38:3, Long. 75, spoke a Ship, Captain Dunlap, from Glasgow for Virginia, out 8 Weeks; and on the 29th, off Chincoteague, he spoke the Ship Carolina, Captain Loxley, from this Port for Charles-Town, out two Days, all well.

Captain Olman, from Portsmouth, on the 25th of last Month, in Lat. 37:56, Long. 67, spoke a Brig, from Whitehaven for Virginia, and a Sloop, Captain Rudolph, from Rhode-Island for Jamaica, out three Days.

Captain Johnson, from Cowes, informs, that a Number of Vessels were lost on the English Coast, in a hard Gale of Wind, on the 22d and 23d of September; and that a large Danish Ship, from Norway, was brought into Cowes by some of their Pilots, which they found without any living Person on board; but he heard that her Captain, and three Men, were drowned, and that the rest of her Crew had got into Dover.---He further informs, that the Brig Morning Star, Captain Dempster, arrived at Portsmouth from Rotterdam, a few Days before he failed; that he was intended for this Place; and that his Majesty's ship the Portland, Captain Stirling, and the Renown Frigate, arrived at Spithead from Antigua, the 22d of September.---On the 20th of October, in Lat. 50:29, Long. 20:7, he spoke the Snow Prince George, Captain George Gamble, from Galway for this Port, three Weeks out, all well.

Captain Green, from Bourdeaux, on the 25th ult. in Lat. 32:7, Long. 69, spoke a Sloop, Captain Robinon, from St. Croix for Bermuda, out 23 Days.

The Ship Chalkley, Captain Spain, from this Port for Bristol, was spoke with, on the 26th of October, 10 Leagues West of Scilly, by Captain Lewis, from Bristol, arrived at New-York.

Captain Cheevers, arrived at New-York from Liverpool, on the 24th of November, spoke a Ship, from London for Virginia, out 28 Days; and on the 30th, he spoke a Schooner, from Virginia for this Port.

On the 23th ult. Mr. James Mathers, jun. of Chester, coming to this City, was flung from his Horse, and so violently hurt, that he died in three Hours after being carried back to Chester.

ARRIVALS.

From Philadelphia. Captain McCulloch, at Cork; Pashby, at Gravesend; West, and Davis, at St. Christophers; and Captains Correy and Allen, at Barbados.
At St. Christophers. Captain Robertson, from Virginia; Seymour, and Blake, from New-York; from New-London, with O'Brien; Captain Shearman Lewis, from New-Haven; and Captain Martin, from Boston.

Messieurs HALL and SELLERS,

On perusing the Papers of a late Gentleman of this City, noted for his curious Enquiries into the Works of Nature, I met with the Letter I now inclose you; and as I thought it might be agreeable to many Readers of your intelligent Paper, I expect you will give it a Place therein. As Mr. French, who wrote the Letter, as well as the several Gentlemen named therein, were Persons of the first Rank in New-Castle County, for Credit and Reputation, I presume there cannot be any Doubt of the Truth of the Relation.

I am yours, S. P.

DEAR SIR,

IT remains now to give an Account of our wonderful Tree. One Jonas Wright, a Carpenter, riding along the King's Road, was surprised to observe Rain plentifully to descend, when the Sky was both fair and serene, and not so much as one Cloud to be seen therein; but much more so when he found, that it fell no where else, save under a small Black-oak Sappling, which stands at the Corner of the Fence of one Henry Land, on the Land of John Grantham, deceased. After he had viewed the neighbouring Trees, and found them as usual, and only the Rain to descend from the Sappling, he smothered the Secret till he, and some of his Acquaintance, took the Opportunity of digging under it, expecting no less from such a Discovery than a whole Chest of Money (a Notion as fruitless as common here.) Nothing being found but Earth and Sand; he divulges the Secret to his Neighbours, who flocked thither to see so unusual a Thing, and in a few Days drew some Hundreds thither, who were all convinced of the Truth thereof, and reported the Story variously.

Upon Monday, the 10th of this Instant, the Day being clear, and very hot, Mr. Yeates, Mr. Hallywell, Mr. Gordon, Mr. Houston, Mr. Sweet, and Self, went thither, about Mid-day, to satisfy ourselves of the Truth thereof, and indeed were wonderfully surprised to see, feel and taste, Drops of perfect Water, descending upon a Sappling, about 19 Inches round. Our Curiosity led every of us to stand under it, and we all returned wet on both Hands, Face and Clothes, with the Drops, which fell under it. A Boy was sent up to the Top thereof, who, extending his Arms above the highest Boughs, received Rain from the Sky on his Hands and Face. I took my Penknife, and opened the Bark, but nothing uncommon was to be seen there, nor indeed about it. It stands upon the Road's Side, being one of the marked Trees of the Road, in a dry sandy poor Soil. From the Time it began, or rather it was found, which was the Third Day of October, to the Seventeenth (when it was cut down by a drunken Villain) it never ceased, but rather increased in the Nights. The Wonder ceased with the Tree; for after it was fallen, it was no more seen. It is upon a level Ground, no Spring near it. Peoples Opinions, in relation thereto, are as different as on any other Subject. For my own Part, I must confess, I never was able to please myself, with any Notion I could form thereof. The Thing is unquestionable, being to a Demonstration true; but what the Cause thereof may be, or what it may portend, I leave to sounder Judgments. And take Leave to subscribe myself,

Dear Sir,

Your most obliged humble Servant,

JOHN FRENCH.

TWENTY POUNDS Reward.

RUN away from the subscribers, on Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, Maryland, November 9, 1772, two convict servant men, viz. JAMES FIELD, by trade a Taylor, is about 22 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, is of a fair complexion, and has short light coloured hair. WILLIAM HAWK, of a swarthy complexion, has black eyes, short black hair, and is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high: Had on, and took with them, a light coloured red German-ferge coat, a dark bear-skin frock, with white metal buttons, a pair of blue sergeoden breeches, a pair of snuff coloured broadcloth ditto, with gold basket buttons, an old castor hat, a new furred ditto, two fine white shirts, and sundry other things unknown. It is supposed they have also taken with them two horses, one of them a dark bay, about 14 hands high, six years old, well gaited, and is branded on the near shoulder E. I. The other is a bright sorrel, with a blaze face, about 13½ hands high, six years old, and is branded on the near shoulder O. Whoever apprehends and secures said servants, so that the subscribers may get them again, shall have EIGHT POUNDS for each, and FORTY SHILLINGS for each of the horses. WILLIAM SELMAN, JOHN SHIPLEY.

Qui Vivum Vitam Dat.

Hominis ad Deum nulla Res propius accedunt, quam Salutum Hominibus dando.

THE infinitely wise Author of Nature has assigned to the EYES and EARS the most useful and important Offices of Life. The Structure of those delicately tender Organs, is so exquisitely minute, the Mechanism and Properties of their various Parts so admirably curious, that they may be filled, with Propriety, the Miracles of Nature. The great Variety of Dangers and Diseases, manifest and occult, to which those precious Senses are exposed; the little Attention that hitherto has been paid to the Improvement of this noble Science; and so few, properly qualified, have engaged in its Practice, that to study them in any Degree suitable to their Importance, is full Business for Life.

The inestimable Blessing, and great Advantages, which attend a perfect Enjoyment of the Sight and Hearing, are obvious to all; but the deplorable and truly pitiable Condition of the Blind and Deaf, is attended with such solitary Discomfort, such gloomy Ideas, and constant Uneasiness of Mind, as no one can be truly sensible of, who has not, in some Measure, experienced it himself. How noble therefore, how deserving of the nicest Cultivation must that Art be, that can restore Sight to the Blind, Hearing to the Deaf, Speech to the Dumb, and keep in Order the Springs of those Master-pieces of creative Wisdom! That Art must needs be divine, because, thus assisted, our Minds are inspired with the grandest Apprehensions of Almighty GOD!

To the INHABITANTS of BRITISH AMERICA,
DR. GRAHAM, Oculist and Aurist,

MOST respectfully offers his best Services, and acquaints them, that he may be consulted at his House, the Corner of Fifth and Market-Streets, in all Disorders of the EYES, and its Appendages; and in every Species of Deafness, Hardness of Hearing, Ulcerations, Noise in the Ears, &c. Those Persons who have had the unspeakable Misfortune of being born deaf and dumb, and those who labour under any Impediment in their Speech, by applying personally, will probably be assisted. Those Persons likewise, whose Eyes are utterly perished, or sunk in their Heads, may have the Deformity removed by artificial Eyes, so curiously fixed and adapted to the Orbits, as to have, in Appearance, the Beauties, Motion, &c. of a natural Eye, in its healthy State.

Medicine and Surgery have always been his favourite Study; but the Structure and Diseases of those tender, sympathetic, and nearly connected Organs, to which Nature has assigned the most important Offices of Life, have for many Years particularly engaged his Attention and Practice; whence, regardless of vague conjectural Hypotheses, he hath deduced, on rational Principles, Methods of Cure, improved and confirmed by the most accurate Observations in a Course of Practice, the most extensive, and, perhaps, the most successful of any of his Cotemporaries in Europe, or on this vast Continent.

The candid and intelligent Inhabitants of these Parts of the British Colonies can readily distinguish true Merit from pretended Knowledge: To conciliate therefore their Favour, Doctor Graham begs Leave to assure them, that, with Tenderness and Moderation, even to the poorest Individual, his best Abilities shall at all Times be exerted to serve them; and as the Success, which attends his Practice, is a better Testimony of his Skill, than any Thing he might advance in his own Behalf, let it suffice only to mention that, after several Years Study at the justly celebrated University of Edinburgh, he has travelled in Pursuit of Knowledge, in his favourite Branches, attending the Infirmarys and Hospitals, as well as the Lectures of the most eminent Professors in Europe. Since his Arrival in this City, in November 1771, upwards of Five Hundred Patients have been cured or relieved of the following Disorders, many of which had been of long standing, and deemed incurable by other Practitioners, even by Gentlemen, who otherwise do Honour to the Profession, the Success attending their Practice sufficiently evincing, that they are worthy and capable of the great, the important Charge, with which they are entrusted. The chief Disorders are as follow, viz. Total, partial and periodical Blindness; Weakness and Dimness of Sight; Squinting; Pain, Swelling and Inflammation of the Eyes; Spots, Specks, Pearls or Films, occasioned by the Small-pox, Blows, or extraneous Substances; weak, watry, red, spongy and ulcerated Eye-lids; falling off of the Hairs of the Eye-lashes; spasmodic Twitchings of the Muscles; involuntary Weeping of the Tears; Tumours and Excrescences; Effluvia lacrymalia. Total and periodical Deafness; Thickness of Hearing; Pain and Inflammations; painful Sensations, in Consequence of loud Sounds; cracking, itching, continual and remitting Noises in the Ears; offensive Runnings, occasioned by Colds, Swelling, Swimming, Picking, and improper Applications, or by long and severe Sicknesses; Insects and extraneous Bodies getting into the Ears; Ulcerations, with Caries of the Bones, Pity, &c. and several Persons born deaf and dumb, who have made very considerable Advances in Speaking and Hearing, inasmuch that perfect Cures will probably be effected.

The Doctor purposes to leave this City in the Beginning of May, 1773. Those, therefore, who have Occasion for his Assistance, are desired to apply as soon as possible.

The Poor, who apply properly recommended, will be assisted gratis, with Advice, Medicines, and manual Operations; as their respective Cases may require; and for that Purpose he will appropriate every Morning, Sundays excepted, between the Hours of Seven and Nine o'Clock.

New-Castle County, November 25, 1772.

The SUBSCRIBER takes this Method of informing his Friends, and the Public in general,

THAT he carries on the HATTER'S BUSINESS, in all its various Branches, opposite George Hillier's Tavern, Christiana Bridge, where all those, who will please to favour him with their custom, may depend on being served in the best Manner, and on as reasonable Terms as in the City of Philadelphia, and their Favours gratefully acknowledged, by their Friend,

JOEL LEWIS.

N. B. He gives the highest Price for Furs of all Sorts.

To be SOLD, by the SUBSCRIBER,

A VALUABLE plantation, in Colerain township, Lancaster county, containing 343 acres, and the usual allowances; whereon are a good dwelling-house, barn and stables; 100 acres cleared, all in good repair; there are 30 acres of fall crop in the ground, 15 acres of good timothy and clover meadow, well watered, and there may be 50 acres more made, at a small expense, as there is a large stream of water that flows in the driest seasons; there is a spring of very good water, very convenient to the house; together with a young orchard, of 200 good trees, that bear well; there might be a saw or fulling mill erected at a small expense, and there is a necessity for a fulling mill, as there is none nigh by. Any person inclining to purchase said place, may be further informed, by applying to the subscriber, living on the premises.

JAMES ROSS.

N. B. Was dropt, November 4, 1772, between New-London Croft-roads and Francis Madral's Tavern, a Silver Watch, with a China face, steel chain, and a flat steel seal, the number not certainly remembered; maker's name supposed to be Charles Reynolds, the crystal broke at the hinges, and the hinges of the crystal case broke, had to be discarded, if not looked sharply at, a paper in the outside case, whereon was a name written on both sides of it, Ralph Pendry. Whoever finds said watch, and secures it for the subscriber, shall have a reward of Twenty Shillings.

JAMES ROSS. 7/6.

CAME to the shed of the subscriber, at the Sign of the White Horse, on Lancaster road, in East-Whiteland, Chester county, the beginning of November last, a small grey HORSE, about six years old, shod all round, some saddle marks. RUN away, on Sunday, the 6th instant, from the subscriber, living in Gloucester county, an Irish servant man, named JOHN MOORE, about 5 feet 10 inches high, between 18 and 19 years of age, of a brownish complexion, has long black hair, clubbed, stammers in his speech, and has a large flesh mole in the corner of his left eye; had on, when he went away, a lightish brown upper cloth jacket, with cuffs, a red and white striped under jacket, with lappels, and without sleeves, an old lightish coloured surtout, a pair of old leather breeches, new seated, the left knee of which was much too short, blue grey yarn stockings, calf-skin shoes, with odd buckles in them, and a new felt hat. Whoever takes up and secures the above servant, so that his master shall get him again, or brings him to JOHN HIDER, senior, at the Old Ferry-house, Philadelphia, shall have FIVE POUNDS reward, and reasonable charges, paid by JOHN HIDER, junior.

N. B. All masters of vessels are forbid to carry him off, at their peril.

Wilmington, December 3, 1772.

RUN away last night, from the subscribers, living in Wilmington, New-Castle county, two servant lads, country born, one named JAMES M'KEVER, about 18 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, strong and well set, a little marked with the small-pox, brownish curled hair, of a churlish countenance, apt to speak short, and is an intolerable liar; had on, and took with him, a half-worn castor hat, a dark coloured cloth coat, lately turned, a cloth jacket, near the same colour, newly turned, a blue jacket, without sleeves, a new coat of a reddish brown, lately altered to fit him, and before altered was full trimmed, with buttons on the sleeves, but now left off, &c. two new homespun shirts, the collars made two little, but now pieced on the button side, old fine shirt, buckskin breeches, mended with a new piece between the legs, a pair of cotton-velvet ditto, one pair of strong new shoes, and one pair of slim ditto, Pinchbeck shoe buckles and silver knee ditto, a yellow checked silk handkerchief, somewhat stained with red paint, 3 pair of yarn and worsted stockings. The other, named WILLIAM PATTERSON, about the same age and height of M'Kever, a Cooper by trade, long thin pale visage, light coloured straight hair, sloop shouldered, down look, seems simple, but is a very great rogue, having run away about two years ago, and was then away 16 months, at York-town, Baltimore-town, and divers other places; had on, a light coloured thickset coat, with wooden buttons, nankeen jacket, white corded linen breeches, old red under jacket, rather too large for him, one old homespun shirt, the tail newly turned up, half-worn castor hat, rather too little for him, pale blue yarn stockings, newly footed with deep blue; he took with him a suit of blue and red superfine broadcloth clothes, much too long for him, as they were made for another person, the breeches pretty much worn and dirty, also a silver watch, with a silver chain; the watch opens with a pin in the end of the key, a dent in the outside case, old seal, the number and maker's name unknown: They also took with them a short gun, some powder, shot and bullet moulds, and some bar lead; the shot-bag is made of old sheepskin, English dressed; they may forge a pass, and change their names, as M'Kever writes a good hand. Whoever secures the said lads, so that their masters may have them again, shall have THREE POUNDS reward for M'Kever, and FIVE POUNDS for Patterson, and the clothes and watch, or for the watch and clothes THREE POUNDS, and for him FORTY SHILLINGS, and if brought home reasonable charges, paid by JOHN STAPLER, and HENRY REYNOLDS.

N. B. All masters of vessels, and others, are forbid to carry them off or harbour them, at their peril. Any person giving information of their being harboured at any particular place, will be paid, as a reward, Twenty Shillings.

A JOURNEYMAN COOPER, if a single man, will meet with good encouragement, by applying to Henry Reynolds.

New-Castle, November 26, 1772.

WAS STOLEN, out of Mr. John Vangessel's pasture, near New-Castle, on Wednesday night, the 4th instant, a black Horse, about 13½ hands high, shod before (his hoofs, if any on, are very bad) out not behind, long mane, of a rusty or sunburnt colour, hanging on his off side, short switch tail, trots and paces at pleasure, supposed about ten years old, hath a remarkable lump on his near cheek bone, which seems to create uneasiness in chewing any kind of grain. Whoever secures said Horse, and sends him home to me, in New-Castle, shall receive FOUR DOLLARS, and reasonable charges, paid by BENJAMIN VANGESSEL.

WHERE can be taught, English reading and writing, with propriety and elegance, geography, chronology, arithmetic, book-keeping, geometry, the construction of logarithms, plain and spherical trigonometry, mensuration of superficies and solids, gauging, dialling, fortification, architecture, navigation, surveying, the projection of the sphere, the use of the globes, conic sections, gunnery, algebra, the theory of pendulums, fluxions, &c. &c. by JOHN WILSON.
A young Man, well acquainted with the English tongue, might have a course of mathematical education, for attending some of the lower classes, in the Day-school, which said Wilson continues, at the same place, as usual.

WAS taken up two days ago, about two miles from Lancaster, on the road leading to Philadelphia, a likely bay COLT, about 3 years old, about 15 hands high, has a small star in his face, and a long (witch) tail, is a natural trotter, and seems to be of the English breed; when taken up appeared to have been very hard rode. The owner is desirous to call upon CONRAD HOUSEL, in Lancaster, 4 doors from Slow's tavern, give his property, pay the charges, and take him away; or he will be sold for the same, the 10th of next month.

STOLEN out of the stable of the subscriber, living in Amity township, Berks county, in the night of the 16th of November, 1772, a BAY-MARE, 8 or 9 years old, near 15 hands high, has a star in her forehead, and a small snip on her nose, has no brand nor ear-mark, is shod before, paces natural, has a large mane and fore-top. Any person securing the above described mare, and giving notice to the subscriber, shall have the above reward, and reasonable charges, if brought home, paid by JUDITH JONES.

STRAYED or STOLEN, from the subscriber, on Wednesday night last, a black HORSE, 3 years old, about 14 hands high, a natural pacer, shod before, his fore feet appear remarkably small, occasioned by a swelling between the hoof and fetlocks, his mane has been (what is called) hogged, but now grown so as to turn over a little to the off side. Whoever takes up the said horse, and brings him to the subscriber, or to Mr. JAMES DOUGLASS, in Salisbury township, Lancaster county, near Poquesa creek, shall receive TWENTY SHILLINGS, and reasonable expenses, from JOHN DOUGLASS, junior.

STOLEN or STRAYED, from the subscriber, living near the Widow Cumming's Tavern, in West Nottingham, Chester county, on the 23d of October last, a black HORSE, about 14 hands high, and about 10 years old, with a bald face, the white coming over his near eye, 2 white feet, a thin mane, with a little slit in one of his ears, shod before, paces and trots, but paces most, rely to catch, but apt to break fences. Whoever takes up the said horse, and brings him to the subscriber, shall have TEN SHILLINGS reward, and reasonable charges; but if stolen, the above reward for horse and thief, provided he can be brought to justice, paid by GEORGE BRIGGS.

WHEREAS the WIFE of the subscriber, MARY MEYER, alias MARY BLOOM, alias MARY SCROBER, hath eloped from him in an unlawful manner, and is ten upwards of Forty Pounds, in cash, as also a parcel of his most valuable goods. There are therefore to forewarn all persons from trusting her on his account, as he will pay no debts of her contracting, from the date hereof.
THOMAS MEYER.

STOLEN from the subscriber, about a fortnight ago, a middle sized bay GELDING, five or six years old, paces a slow travel, has been used to a carriage, large flat hoofs, and branded on the near buttock (if not on both) with the letter W. Whoever secures said horse, so as I get him again, shall receive, if taken out of the county, TWENTY SHILLINGS, if out of the province, FORTY SHILLINGS, and reasonable charges, if brought home, paid by W. B. ANTHONY BAWNING.

Philadelphia, October 30, 1772.
SIX POUNDS Reward.
STOLEN out of the pasture of the subscriber, living in Second-street, last night, a dark brown MARE, about 14 hands high, and about 8 years old; she hath neither brand nor ear-mark, but has had a lump under her near shoulder, which, however, is now so far gone that it is not observed, but by the skin being looser at that place than the rest. She is a gentle creature, and a natural pacer. Whoever takes up the said mare and thief, so that the owner may have the mare again, and the thief brought to justice, shall have the above reward of SIX POUNDS, and for the mare alone THREE POUNDS, and reasonable charges, paid by me OSBORNE SLOSSER.

THE PROPRIETORS of the BORDENTOWN them under a Necessity of raising the Fare of Passengers, going to and from South-Amboy, and that from the First Day of this instant December, a Passenger must pay Five Shillings, to or from Bordentown, and Six Shillings, to or from Burlington.

JOSEPH BORDEN, JOSEPH FOLWELL.

STRAYED or STOLEN, last night, out of Jacob Shoemaker's pasture, near the Center-house, a likely foal MARE, about 14 hands high, 3 or 9 years old, neither brand nor ear-mark, a star in her forehead, a thin mane and tail, and appears as if she was with foal, a natural pacer, and shod before.
Whoever takes up the said Mare, and brings her to the subscriber, living in White-horse-alley, shall receive THIRTY SHIL-LINGS reward, and reasonable charges, paid by JONATHAN SHOEMAKER.

TEN POUNDS Reward.
STOLEN, out of the subscriber's stable, on Saturday night, the 21st instant, a very likely large BAY GELDING, full 15 hands and an inch high, 3 years old last spring, has a long tail, which may be made short, a small star in his forehead, round nose, some white on one of his hind feet, has a small scar on one of his buttocks, near the tail, supposed to be made by the horn of a cow, and may be easily discovered; he is about half blooded, and has no other gait than walk, trot, and gallop.
Whoever secures the said horse, so that the owner may have him again, shall have FIVE POUNDS, and for the thief FIVE POUNDS more, paid by me WILLIAM PEARSON.

THE Vestry of St. George's Parish, in Baltimore County, desire to inform any CLERGYMAN of the CHURCH of ENGLAND, who may incline to engage in discharging the Office of a Curate, that they will give him yearly
THE SUM OF ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, Currency; and that they doubt not but the Parishioners will,
by ready Subscription, increase that Sum, in Proportion to, on Trial, he shall give Satisfaction.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Cecil county, North Salsburghanna Hundred, Maryland, the 15th of November last, an indentured Irish servant man, named WILLIAM HAMILTON, alias WILLIAM HAMILTON, came from Ireland in the ship Pennsylvania Farmer, Capt. Robert Johnston, in June 1771; he is about 26 years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, slim made, pale hair, thin beard, apt to sweat, has large lumps on his great toes, and walks somewhat splaw-footed: Had on, when he went away, an old grey worsted coat, and a close-bodied claret coloured drab cloth coat, without lining, a spotted flannel jacket, with horn buttons and long skirts, a pair of old fustian breeches, a pair of old black stockings, newly footed, new shoes and iron buckles, a felt hat, and wears a silver breast buckle. Whoever takes up the said servant, and secures him in any of his Majesty's goals, giving intelligence to me, so that I may get him again, shall have the above reward, and all reasonable charges, paid by
CHARLES PORTER.
N. B. Strayed away, in June last, from the plantation of Robert Hensley, in New-Castle county, St. George's Hundred, a dark bay MARE, six year old par, middle sized, with a star in her forehead, shod before, paces and trots. Whoever takes her up, so as I may have her again, shall have Five Dollars reward, paid by CHARLES PORTER.

Dumfries, Virginia, October 30, 1772.
RUN away from the subscriber, on the 7th instant, three indentured servant men, viz. JOHN ELISHA, an Englishman, PETER DREW, and JOHN PARSONS, Irishmen. John Elisha is a Bricklayer, about 35 years of age, 6 feet high, pale complexion, short dark hair, a little pitted with the small-pox, and had two of his left hand fingers contracted, and bent in his hand; had on, when he went away, a grey cloth coat, with metal buttons, black jacket, leather breeches, and yarn stockings. Peter Drew is a Sawyer, 25 years old, about 5 feet 8 inches high, well made, ruddy complexion and full faced, cut or curled wig, and much pitted with the small-pox; carried with him a variety of clothes, particularly a suit of light blue, a fustian coat and red jacket, and had several ruffled shirts. John Parsons is a Labourer, 20 years of age, 6 feet high, pale complexion, slender made, a little pitted with the small-pox, and straight black hair; had on, when he went away, a coat, blue and light coloured, red jacket, leather breeches, and a pair of ribbed yarn stockings. The said servants were imported three weeks ago, in the James, Captain Steel, from London, and stole, from the mouth of Quantico, a small boat, which (after landing in Maryland) they let drift; they were seen ten days ago, in a small vessel, near Blackstone's Island, in Patowmack river, and from the Bricklayer's being well acquainted to the northward, I suspect they are gone to the Eastern-shore, in Maryland, and from thence to Philadelphia; as they all can write well, it is probable they may forge passes. Any person that secures the said servants, and delivers them to me here, shall receive a reward of TWENTY POUNDS, Virginia currency, and in proportion for any of them.
ALEXANDER CAMPBELL.

paid for in eight months from the day of sale, with interest and security, if required. Attendance will be given at the time and place aforesaid by LODOWICK SPROGELL, Attorney to the Trustees.

To be SOLD by the SUBSCRIBER, living in Frederick county, Maryland,
A VALUABLE TRACT of LAND, containing about 1700 acres, lying on Conococheague creek, about 20 miles from Baltimore, 30 miles from Frederick-town, and 6 miles from Hagerstown. There are several good improvements on the said tract, on one of which the subscriber now lives, whereon is a good new stone dwelling-house, new stone kitchen, good new grist-mill and saw-mill (the mill-houses built of stone) an extraordinary good orchard, that produces 60 hogheads of cyder yearly, there are already 30 acres of good meadow made, and in very good order, and 200 more may easily be made, about 200 acres of upland cleared on the said plantation, is now in a popular part of the country, and is well situated for any public business; the land is well known, and needs little to recommend it; the soil is rich, well watered with springs, and extremely well timbered; it commands a beautiful prospect of Conococheague creek, being nearly surrounded by it; it is well situated to divide in 4 or 5 plantations. Terms of sale may be known, by applying to the subscriber, who will give an indisputable title to the purchaser, free from any incumbrance, with the quitrents paid up to the day of sale.
